A journey through the Middle Ages

‘On the Knight’s Trail’ adventure museum

Who knows how much a knight’s suit of armour weighed? And what exertions, dangers and new experiences did they glean during their crusades? Seeing, hearing and touching– experience the Middle Ages at our museum with all your senses. The 14 themed rooms weave together the story of Heinrich the Knight and his Maria, with the history of the Roman and salt roads, as well as that of pilgrims, crusaders, alchemists, fortresses and castles. For children: Don’t forget to attempt Knight Rüdiger’s museum puzzle quest! Anyone who solves the tricky puzzles will be rewarded with a certificate and appointed a damsel or a noble knight.

Other highlights

– Film “30 Years of Restoration at Ehrenberg” at the Klause
– Restaurant Salzstadl / Schönegger Käse-Alm

Museum im Grünen Haus
Museum visit

The museum in the Grünes Haus (Green House) is located in Reutte's Untermarkt. The strong shade of green gives the house its name. The wonderful façade was designed in 1779 by Johann Jakob Zeiller. Awaiting you inside are beautiful murals and 11 stuccoed ceilings. The museum is a proud four–time winner of the Tyrolean Museum Award as well as the Austrian Museum Quality Seal and offers disabled access.
Over around 300m² of exhibition space, you will find a varied and lovingly presented collection. You can see valuable paintings from the painter's workshop of the Zeiller artist family. Well worth seeing are the works of Anna Stainer-Knittel, better known as Geierwally. Visit our clock display and the original-style tavern and discover archaeological finds from our region. The impressive Rodfuhrtafeln tell about the historic heyday of the salt trade in Reutte.

Free:	Admission to the museum

Creative Crafts workshop for kids

Children's workshop

We – the Werkhaus – are a workshop in the centre of Reutte, open to everyone and providing access to the latest technologies including 3D printing and laser-cutting, as well as classic tools for working with wood, metals, textiles and other materials.
In our children's workshop, we encourage artisan craft skills and creativity.
We work with different materials, equipment and techniques. Alternating workshops offer the use of our laser-cutter, saws, drills and other tools, which are used to build cool stuff that you can take home with you.
A fantastic keepsake of your holiday in Tyrol.

Duration: Approx. 2½ hours (in any weather)
Participants: 2–8 children (without accompanying adults)
Ages: 6–10

Registration:	Firday until 11:00 at the Tourist Information Reutte +43 5672 62336

An educational program on the topic of snow and avalanches for children and adults

The allure of snow and its dangers

This afternoon we will examine the snow layer together under a magnifying glass and marvel at the diverse shapes we find there. We will also try to understand the dangers that snow can bring and how avalanches occur. Practical exercises such as probing and searching with an avalanche transceiver are also part of this program.

Duration: approx. 2–3 hours
Minimum number of participants: 4 people

Registration:	Thursday until 18:00 at the Bergführerbüro Reutte-Höfen
